Once there was a man who was sick and could not walk. He wanted to see Jesus so 4 of his friends carried him to the house where Jesus was healing people.

Jesus told the man to rise up, to pick up his bed and to walk.

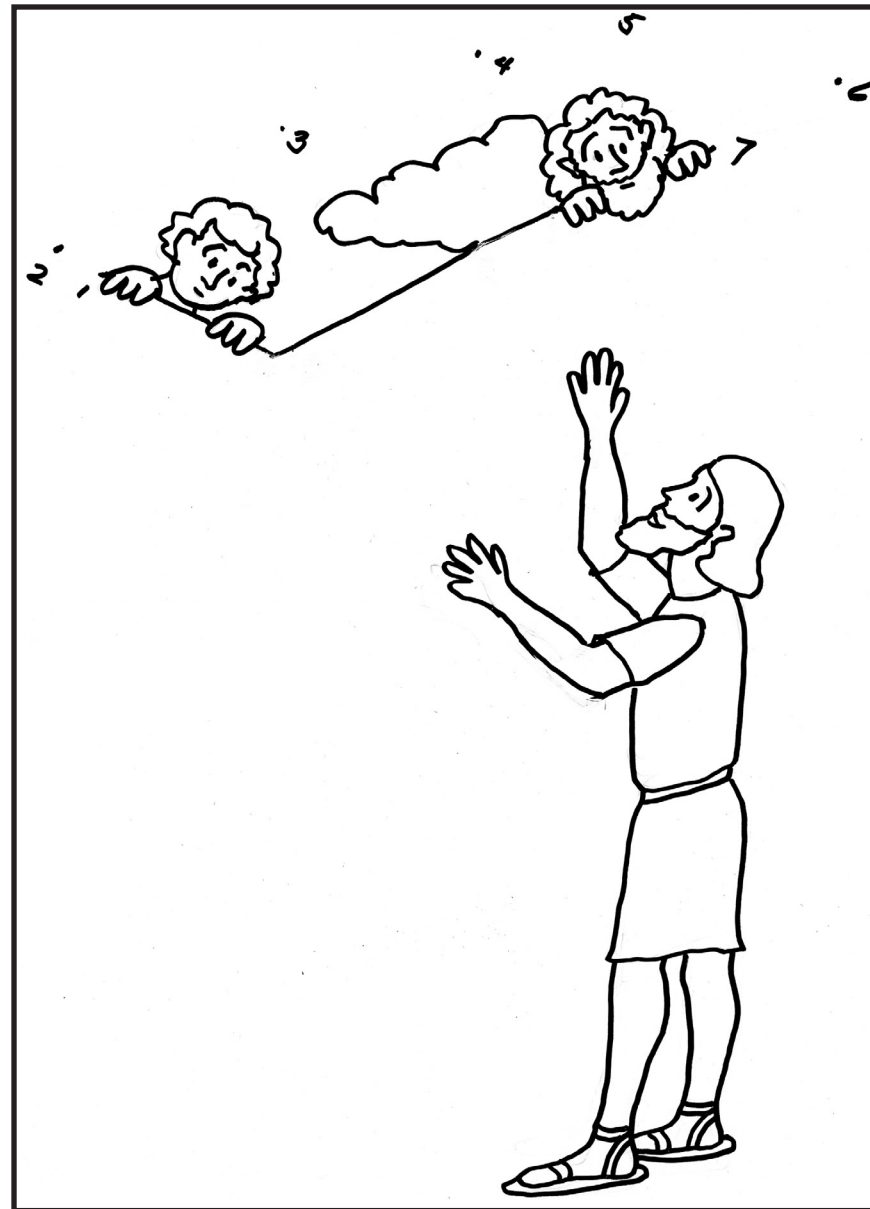

And that is just what he did!

When they got there they could not get near Jesus. They could not even get in the door! There were people everywhere. They had all come to see Jesus. What should they do? How would they get in? One of them had an idea. It took a lot of work but they did it. They went up on the

Up there they moved some tiles to make a hole.

With ropes they lowered the man down into the room where Jesus was. He was a surprise visitor!
