Jesus went to the house of his friends. There was one brother named Lazarus and 2 sisters one named Mary and the other Martha. Lots of people came to the house to hear him talk about God.

Mary sat down to listen to Jesus. Martha was running around trying to take care of everybody and serve them refreshments.

Look at the picture on the previous page. How do you think Martha felt?

Finally she said something to Jesus. She wanted Mary to help her. What do you think Jesus said?

Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her.

What would you say was the one thing that is “needful?”

This story comes right after the parable of The Good Samaritan. Do you think it is teaching the same lesson or a different one?
