

Jesus Tells a Story:

The Tares and the Wheat

(Matthew 13)

When you have finished, draw your idea here.

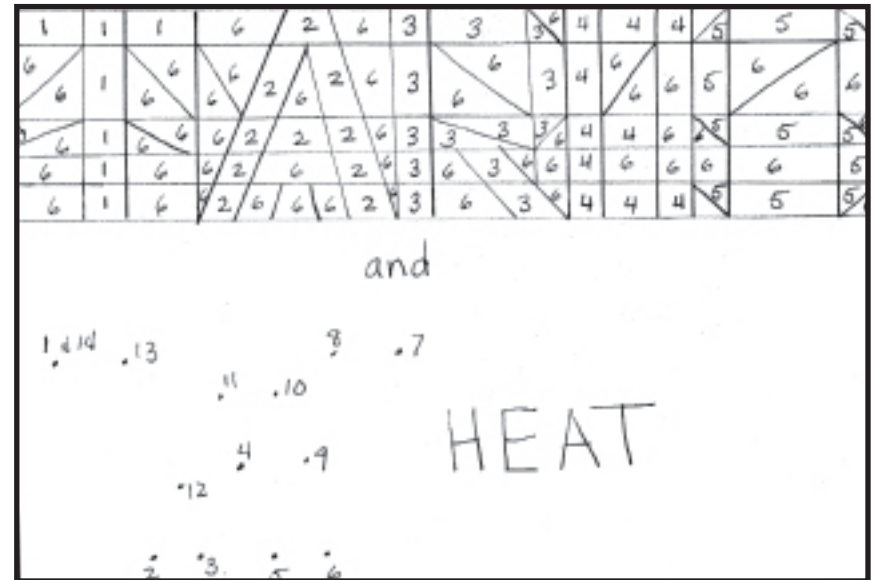

Retold and Pictures by Kim Myers

Coloring by _____

This is for personal use only, no commercial reproduction.

www.kimmyersart.com

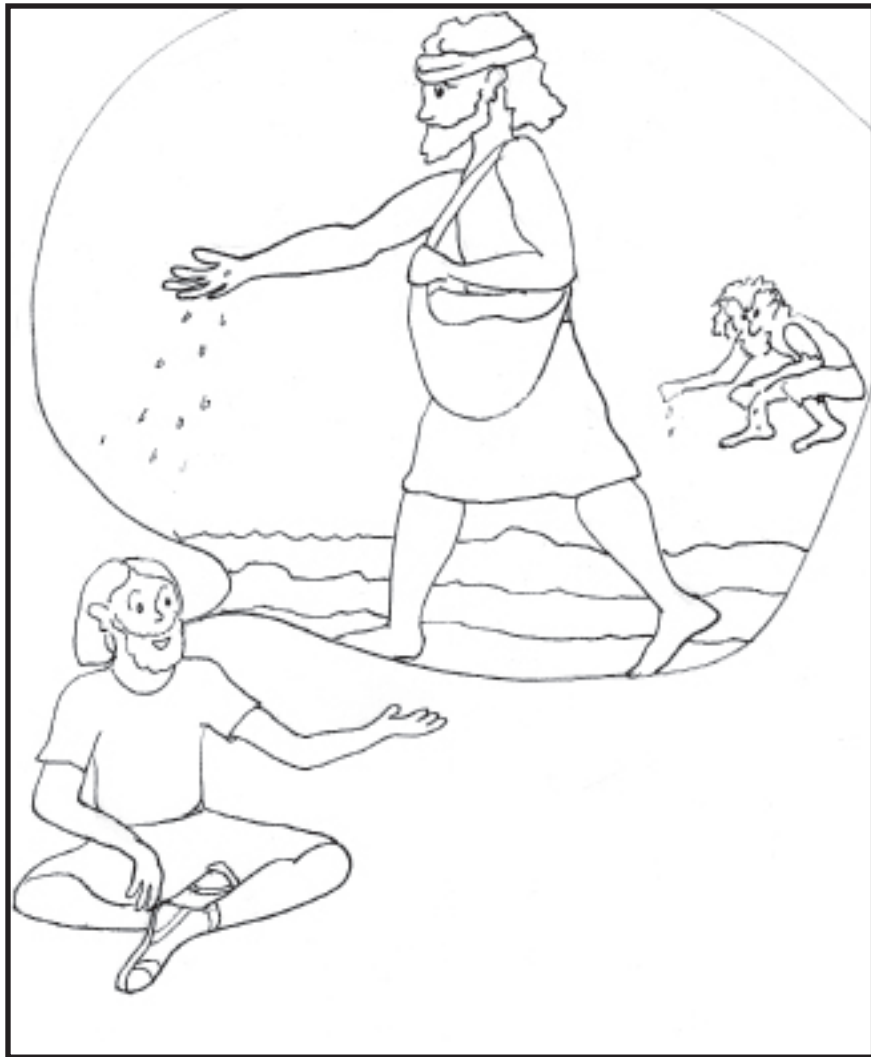

Jesus liked to tell stories to teach a lesson. These stories are called “parables.” He starts by saying “something” is like this. Then he tells the story. Many of them teach us what heaven is like. That is what this one is about. It is called

What words can you think of that go with this story and end in “eed”?

_____ eeds

_____ eeds

A man planted good wheat seed. A bad man came at night and planted weeds. When the plants came up they looked very much alike when they were little. The good man said, "Do not pull any of them out. It is too hard to tell them apart!"

2

"When they have grown up we will pick the good wheat and put it into the barn. Then we will see the weeds. We can get them and burn them."

Why did the good man want to wait?

What do you think Jesus wanted us to learn about heaven from this story?

3