Once there were 3 boys. They were friends of Daniel. (Do you remember him? He was safe in the _____ den.) Just like Daniel they had only the one true God. Their names were

Shad-, Me-, A--go

Shadrach, Meshach, Abednego.

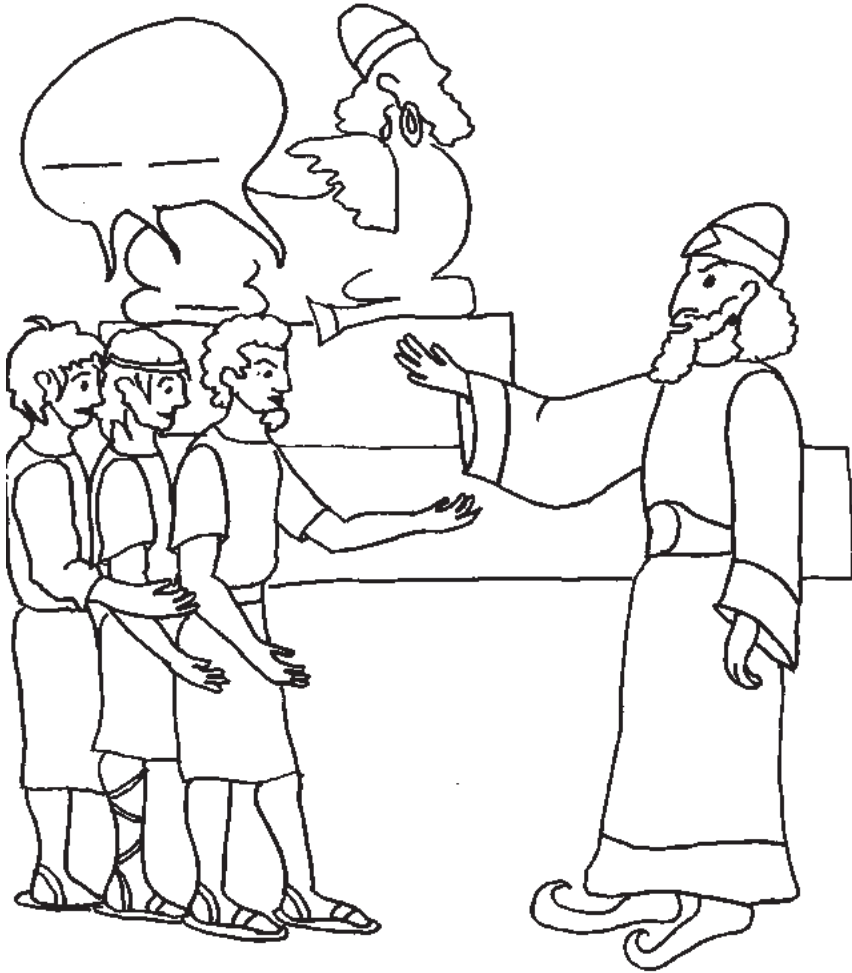

If you think their names are long, you should see the name of the wicked king. It was Nebuchadnezzar!

This king had a really big golden idol. He made for everyone to bow down to it and worship it.

Even the king could see that God was taking care of them. The only things that burned were the ropes they were tied up with. They did not even smell like smoke!

The king said that they could come out and that they could worship God. They did not have to break the commandments.

The 3 boys had learned the commandments. You have learned them too. Which commandment did the king want them to break? _____
 What do you think they said?

They would not bow down and worship the gold idol. The king said, "Throw them in the middle of a very hot fire!" It was so hot that the men that put them into it burned up.

When the king looked in he saw they were fine. He also saw the
