There had been no

for a long time so the crops did not grow. There was not much food. Lots of people were hungry. God told Elijah to go to a certain city. There was a woman there. God had told her to feed Elijah. So Elijah went there.

By the gate of the city, Elijah met the woman. He asked her for something to eat and drink. She told him that she had only a tiny bit of meal and a tiny bit of oil. She was going to bake it into a little bread. She and her son were going to eat it for their last meal and then die. Elijah told her, "Do not be afraid." Make something for me first, then make something for you and your son.
