

Jesus came to Nain. He met a woman who was very sad. Her only son was dead and they were taking him away. Jesus stopped the men who were carrying the body and healed the young man. His mother was so glad!