

Parable of the Sower (2)

Matthew 13, Mark 4, Luke 8

Jesus like to teach lessons by telling stories called “parables.”

This story is about a man planting seeds.

The man had a lot of seeds to plant. What he is doing is called “sowing.” Jesus was talking about “seeds” of thoughts or new ideas about God.

Write what you think each of these might mean.

Sometimes the seeds can fall

1. by the way side where birds eat them _____

2. on rocky places where there is not enough soil _____

3. in the thorns where they get squeezed out _____

4. on good ground where they can grow _____
