One day David was out far away from the city with his fighting men. They had been working hard protecting the farmers and sheep herders. They were hungry but they did not have any food.

He sent _____ men to ask for food.

What happened to mean old Nabal?
When Abigail told him the next morning the Bible says that "his heart died within him and he became like stone."

What happened to wise and beautiful Abigail? Later she married David.
When he became King then she was a Queen.

Nabal was rich but he was mean. His wife Abigail was wise and beautiful. David's men asked Nabal for food.

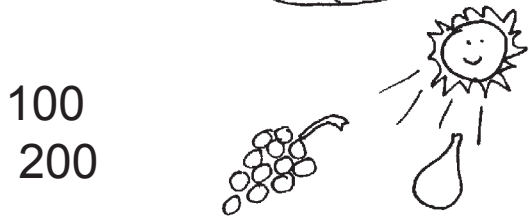

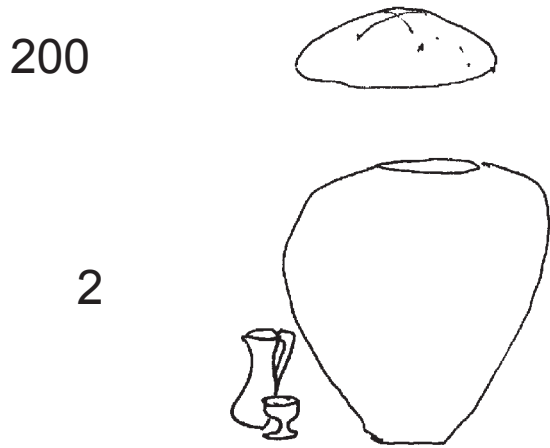

He said NO!

David was really mad when he heard what Nabal said. He told his men to get ready. They were going to teach Nabal a lesson!

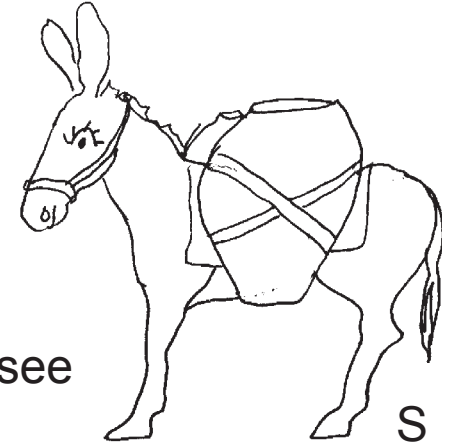

Thank goodness, Abigail found out about it first!

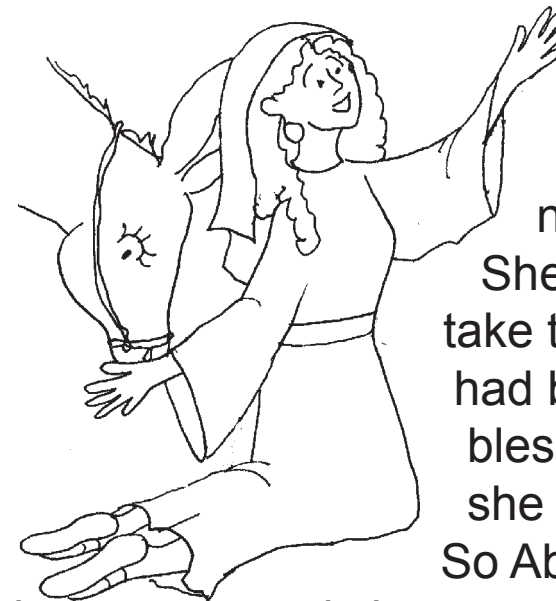

Abigail quickly gathered up

She packed it all up on and quickly rode to see David.

She told him not to be angry. She asked him to take the food she had brought. David blessed God that she had come. So Abigail saved her people and she saved David from acting in anger. Abigail saved the day!
