After Moses, Joshua lead the people. God promised them the City of Jericho. The King of Jericho did not want to give them the city so he locked the gates in the high walls that went all around the city. What could they do?

God told Joshua to march around the city once each day for 6 days. On the next day God said that

On the 7th time around the city, the priests blew on the horns. Joshua told the people to shout. What do you think happened?

The walls all fell down!
