

How Many Wells Shall We Dig?

(Genesis 26)

When you are finished, draw your favorite part here.

Retold and Pictures by Kim Myers

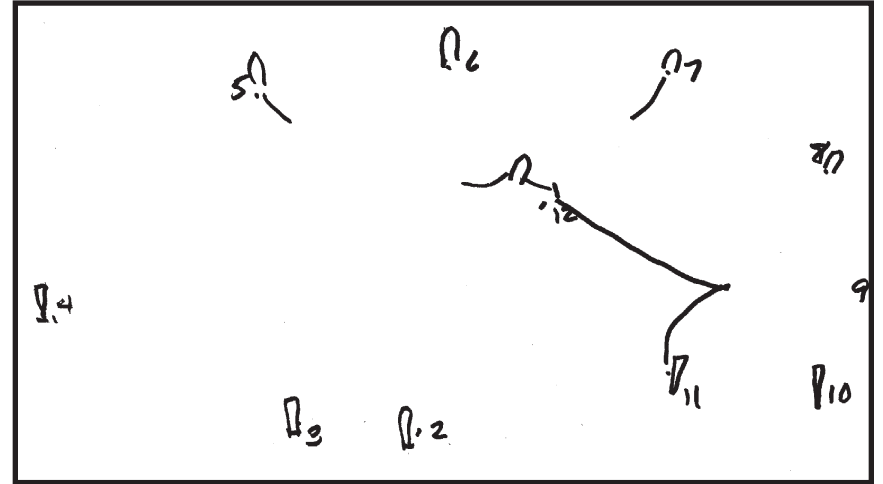

Coloring by _____

This is for personal use only, no commercial reproduction.

www.kimmyersart.com

Isaac (👁️ = sik) listened to the one God. Most other people did not. Isaac did what God told him to do.

Isaac and his family had sheep and lived in _____ s so that they moved with the sheep.

Isaac listened to God. He did not want to fight. He took his sheep and his tents and went to another place. He dug another well and found water! Other people wanted it. They wanted to fight!

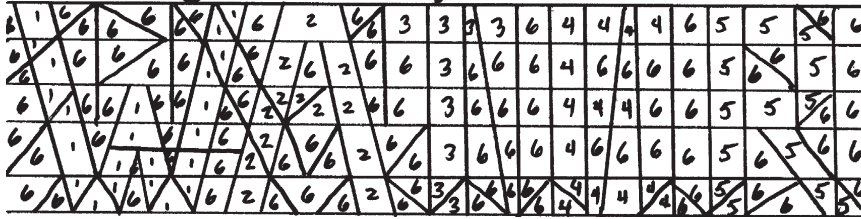

What do you think Isaac did?

Isaac listened to God. He took his sheep and his tents and went to another place. He dug another well and found water. God told him that this was the place he could stay. Isaac thanked God. The King came and said that he could see that the one God was taking care of Isaac. They could share the water.

One time, there had been no rain for a long time. They needed to find

Isaac asked God what to do. They took the sheep and the tents and moved to a new place. They were happy there but the people who lived near by did not like it. The King told them to leave!

Isaac listened to God. He took his sheep and his tents and went to another place. He dug a well and found water!

The other people wanted that water too! They wanted to fight for it!

