

God the Only Cause and Creator

"...you are God's garden and God's building." I Corinthians

What does it mean to be God's garden and building? How many petals does each flower have? What else can you think of that comes in the same number? Watch in this booklet for this number to come up again.

"Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves." Psalms 100

Abraham was 99 and his wife Sarah was 90 when God told them they would have a son, "a father of many nations." Isaac was born 9 months later. 2

“Jesus cried and said. He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.”

John

Who sent him? _____

“And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and peaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.”

Matthew

Where did Jesus get the power to do that kind of healing? _____

Does that tell us anything about how we can heal too? _____

Jesus was teaching one time. They had been away from the towns for about 3 days. There was a huge crowd of people and they were hungry. Jesus wanted to feed them but they only had _____ loaves of bread and a few small fishes. Jesus gave thanks and started breaking up the bread and fishes. After everyone had eaten, how many baskets full did they gather of leftovers? _____

Seven sometimes symbolizes completeness. Where did all that food come from? How were there more leftover than when they started?

After Jesus ascended, his students continued to heal and to teach. The High Priest was mad at them and ordered that they be thrown in prison.. That night the angel of the Lord came and let them out of prison and they went right back to healing and teaching. The High Priest was pretty surprised!

One of the wise Jewish leaders cautioned the High Priest, " if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it." What do you think?

" And such trust have to through Christ to God-ward: Not that we are sufficient of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God." II Corinthians

So how does knowing God as the only Cause and Creator change our view of things? How does it help us? What part of our lives does it leave out? What do you think "to God-ward" looks and feels like?
