

Some men wanted to have a bigger room so more people could come and hear the prophet, Elisha. They called him, “The man of God.”

To build the room they decided to cut down some trees for wood. One man borrowed an axe so he could help too but the axe head flew off and landed in the river! He was very worried so he asked Elisha for help. Elisha asked him to point out where it fell in. He prayed and then he threw in a stick. The axe head came floating to the surface!

II Kings 6