“I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God. I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied when I awake, with thy likeness.” Psalms

In Genesis there is a story of twin brothers, Jacob and Esau. Jacob knows what he wants but thinks he needs to lie, cheat and steal to get it. This does not turn out well for Jacob and he runs away to avoid being punished. One night he was struggling with what he had done.

The Bible says that he was wrestling with an angel. At the end of the fight he is given a new name because he has changed. He says, "I have seen God face to face."

"Don't fool yourself into thinking that you are a listener when you are anything but, letting the Word go in one ear and out the other. Act on what you hear! Those who hear and don't act are like those who glance in the walk away, and two minutes later have no idea who they are, or what they look like. But whoever catches a glimpse of the revealed council of God--the free life!--even out of the corner of his eye, and sticks with it, is no distracted scatterbrain but a man or woman of action. That person will find delight and affirmation in the action." James from The Message 2

"So, chosen by God for this new life of love, dress in the wardrobe God picked out for you: compassion, kindness, humility, quiet strength, discipline. Be even-tempered, content with second place, quick to forgive an offense. Forgive as quickly and completely as the Master forgave you. And regardless of what else you put on, wear love. It is your basic, all-purpose garment. Never be without it." Colossians from The Message

How can you wear love?

Jesus called a little child to him and told his followers that they needed to become more like children, more humble and always looking at the Father's face.

How can we always look at the Father's face? _____
